What we do

The Leisure, Health and Fitness Skillnet network provides training specific to the industry in collaboration with Ireland Active. We are dedicated to finding the best training solution to support business and employee development. Courses are provided for Ireland Active and REPs Ireland members which include leisure facilities, health clubs, education and training providers and gyms to name a few. We deliver a tailored, sector-specific training solutions at substantially reduced costs, to support leisure employers and their business needs.

In order to avail of training provided by the network, you will need to become a member of Ireland Active or be a REPs Ireland member. For further information on becoming a member of Ireland Active please click here and for REPs Ireland click here

Our aims

The objective of Leisure, Health and Fitness Skillnet is to encourage and enable Ireland Active & REPs Ireland members to grow their business and develop the necessary skills to excel in the ever-changing leisure industry.

Training Programmes

Training Programmes: As the representative body of the leisure, health and fitness industry, Ireland Active endeavours to provide a wide variety of training that respond to educational needs of our members. This can include a wide variety of skillsets, from industry specific training such as gym instruction and swim teaching to development skills such as marketing, management or leadership to name a few.

Training provided is designed to ensure that member facilities and their staff If you have any specific training requirements, please contact manager@lhfskillnet.ie or info@lhfskillnet.ie

Head to Leisure, Health and Fitness Skillnet website